GRAPEVINE COMMUNICATIONS CONTINUES GROWTH, ADDS EXPERIENCED MANAGER TO STAFF.

Sarasota, Florida – April 5, 2010 – Grapevine Communications, Sarasota’s leading full-service advertising agency, announces the hiring of Donna Wolski as Client Relations Assistant.

Wolski brings thirty years of management experience in the not-for-profit and education sectors, having most recently served as Vice President of Development for First Step of Sarasota, a substance abuse treatment facility. Prior to that, she was Director of development for G.WIZ, The Science Museum, in Sarasota. Wolski graduated from University of Maine and received her Master’s Degree from Indiana University.

In her new position at Grapevine, Wolski provides administrative support across Grapevine’s client base in diverse industries, including assisting in new client development. Wolski coordinates projects for Grapevine’s Account Executives, monitoring workflow quality and consistency, along with facilitating communication during all phases of job production.

Angela Massaro-Fain, President of Grapevine Communications, states “Donna is a fantastic addition to our talented team here at Grapevine. Her successful track record in management fits nicely into Grapevine’s mission to offer our marketing expertise to local non-profits.” Grapevine donates more than $100,000 annually in pro-bono work to area non-profits.
