Holland Construction Names Robert Plumeri Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer

Sarasota, Florida – January 11, 2011 – Holland Construction, a full-service construction management company with offices throughout the Mid-Atlantic and Southwest Florida region, has selected Robert J. Plumeri as its new Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. He was formerly President and Chief Operating Officer for Richard D. Poole, LLC.

In his new position, Mr. Plumeri will oversee day-to-day project management; assist with new business development, estimating and bidding processes; identify and establish relationships with new subcontractors and vendors; and handle customer service responsibilities.

“With a strong and sustained construction pipeline throughout our multi-state offices, we were searching for an experienced professional who could help us achieve our short-term and long-term objectives,” explained Joe Holland, President of Holland Construction. “In Robert Plumeri, we have added a highly qualified leader who brings extensive experience and problem-solving abilities in the construction management industry, across a variety of project categories.”

Mr. Plumeri, who has more than 35 years of diversified construction management experience, has also worked in management positions with Kiewit Construction and the Hospital Building and Equipment Corporation. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Construction Engineering from the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and presently resides in York, Pennsylvania.

About Holland Construction

In-depth experience in the Medical, Office, Industrial, Retail and Multi-Family Residential sectors has made Holland Construction one of the most versatile and experienced contractors in the Mid-Atlantic and Southwest Florida regions.
